STATEMENT

Public association Belarusian Republican Youth Union extends its solidarity with members of the Hungarian Communist Worker's Party whose members of the leadership are accused “in libel made in public place”.

We believe that such political actions of Hungarian authorities break the basic law - article 61 of The Constitution of the Republic of Hungary, it provides to everyone the right to the free declaration of his views and opinions.

To our mind, the party's leadership accusation is in opposition with the fundamental principles of international law and this prosecution has political reasons.

To our great regret we observe the violation of the principal right of the citizen - the right to the free declaration of his views and opinions and we appeal to the authorities of the Republic of Hungary to stop the political process, so they can demonstrate their loyalty to the democratic principals not only in speeches but in actions.

Central Committee of Belarusian Republican Youth Union.
